

WESTONZOYLAND

PUMPING STATION MUSEUM

As featured on BBC Countryfile

Somerset's First Steam Powered Pumping Station

For A Fascinating Day Out, Please Visit Us On

Sunday 4th May and Early May Bank Holiday, Monday 5th May

- Discover how steam power was used on the 'Somerset Levels'
- Watch the 1861 Easton Amos Land Drainage Machine in action
- See our unique and varied collection of engines, winches, turbines and pumps including a steam powered milk bottle washer
- View the 1830 Grade II listed pump house & cottage*

Other exhibits include small water wheel, deep well pumps, forge, 1914 Lancashire boiler, 1938 Marshall portable boiler and 2' narrow gauge railway giving freight hauled demonstrations.

Free Parking * Tea Room * Picnic Area * Book Sales

We Look Forward To Welcoming You

Signposted from Westonzoyle Village, approx. 4 miles from Bridgwater. Dogs welcome on lead.

Open 1pm - 5pm In Steam Admission charges:
Adult £6.00 Senior £5.00 Child £3.00 Family £14.00

For more information please visit: www.wzlet.org

Westonzoyle Engine Trust - Charity Number 279765

